

MILITARY AND VETERANS CODE

Immunity from Civil Process

390. No person belonging to or on duty with the active militia of the state, or engaged in the performance of military duty on call of the Governor or in pursuance of an order of the President of the United States shall be arrested on any civil process while going to, remaining at, or returning from any place at which he may be required to attend for military duty.

(Amended Ch. 1188, Stats. 1967. Effective November 8, 1967.)

Liability, Members of Militia

392. Members of the militia in the active service of the State shall not be liable civilly or criminally for any act or acts done by them in the performance of their duty.

(Ch. 389, Stats. 1935.)

Interference with Militia

396. The commanding officer of any portion of the militia parading or performing any military duty in any street or highway may require persons in such street or highway to yield the right of way to such militia, except that the carriage of the United States mail, the legitimate functions of the police, and the progress and operations of hospital ambulances, fire engines, and fire departments and apparatus shall not be interfered with thereby.

Any person who hinders, delays, or obstructs any portion of the militia parading or performing any military duty, or who attempts so to do, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(Ch. 389, Stats. 1935.)
